Steve will remind you that...

Building a successful business is not an end in itself. It is a means to an end. It is a way to create a better life for you and those whom you love, however you—and they—may define it. You need to do the life plan first and then keep revising it, to make sure it's up to date and your business plan is helping you achieve it. In this section you will learn how the Six Human Needs affect your approach to life and business and through a “Wheel of Life” exercise determine where you really are in seven vital areas of a well-designed life. Finally, you will discover that while all seven areas are important, there is a hierarchy that creates peak performance and fulfillment.
